

What happens to your cartridges?

1
Recycle your cartridges at a 'Cartridges 4 Planet Ark' collection box

Organise one at your workplace or visit any of our many participating retailers or community centres for a drop-off.

2
Sent to 'Close the Loop' by Australia Post, they are manually sorted in Australia for various recycling processes.

'Close the Loop' collects your cartridges for recycling

4
Cartridges are processed in the 'Green Machine'

This process breaks down the old cartridges into metal, plastic, and ink components for new use.

5
Your cartridges are turned into tonnes of new products. From pens using recycled ink to TonerPlas roads from plastic.

6
Clean plastic streams are reused in various applications

Using Close the Loop's revolutionary Australian technology
